PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

As a broker with Compass Commercial Real Estate Services, Eli Harrison works directly with clients to match their specific needs to their desired property.

Eli joined Compass Commercial in 2021 after obtaining his broker's license. Before becoming a member of the Compass team, Eli managed remote fly-fishing lodges in Alaska, New Zealand, and Belize. His diverse professional background helps him connect with clients and find opportunities that work well for both owners and tenants.

Growing up in Tumalo, Eli has exceptional local knowledge of the area and the unique opportunities and endemic challenges to the Central Oregon commercial real estate market. His enthusiasm for helping others and his passion for promoting sustainable growth that fits the changing needs and demographics of the area allows him to provide his clients with the best service possible.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT & INTERESTS

Eli serves as a volunteer environmental educator for several local high schools in Sisters and is an active member of the Deschutes River Alliance and the Deschutes Chapter of Trout Unlimited. He spends most of his free time fly-fishing, boating, skiing, and biking in the outdoors around Bend.
