PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

As a broker with Compass Commercial, Ron is consistently a Top Producer. He is skilled at marketing commercial properties and transaction negotiation. He has closed hundreds of millions of dollars in real estate transactions.

Ron's over 40 years of experience in real estate began in Portland, Oregon in 1978 after attending law school at the University of Idaho. He has practiced real estate brokerage continuously since then, moving his practice to Bend in 1981. He joined Compass Commercial in 2008, where he has been one of the top producing brokers every year since.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT & INTERESTS

Ron served as Chapter President for the Oregon/Southwest Washington CCIM Chapter and later went on to serve as Regional VP overseeing five states of CCIM Chapters. He is on the Central Oregon Realtors Professional Standards Committee and on the City of Bend UGB Boundary Advisory Committee. In his personal time, he spent many years coaching youth basketball and baseball.

I AM RON ROSS

I have been in the commercial real estate business since 1978, full-time, all the time. I've learned a lot over the course of my over 40+ year career, having personally conducted hundreds of real estate transactions.

As a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), the highest level of educational attainment in the commercial real estate industry, I have had the opportunity to travel the country and throughout the world to learn about, and teach commercial real estate best practices and principles. Still, I'm always learning something new. Chances are, I discover something new relative to the industry every day.

I am consistently a Top Broker for Compass Commercial, one of the leading commercial firms in the state of Oregon. I know how to market property, how to get deals done and how to listen to the client's needs. I have closed hundreds of millions of dollars in real estate transactions ranging from less than $100,000 to well over $10 million.

PERSONAL STORY

I was born and raised on a cattle ranch in Wyoming, later attending and graduating from South Dakota State University. In 1978, I left law school at the University of Idaho bound for Portland, Oregon, enticed by the more exciting pursuit of a career in commercial real estate. I managed, bought and brokered real estate from that point forward— learning all the way. I moved to Bend in 1981 and have never left.

I AM MOST GRATEFUL FOR

- My family
- My fellow brokers and staff teammates at Compass Commercial
- My coaching experience in Little League Baseball and Youth Basketball
- Being honored by my peers by being named Central Oregon Realtor of the Year in 2011
- Serving as CCIM Oregon Chapter President and CCIM Pacific Northwest Regional VP
- Many friends, customers, and clients that I respect

I AM VERY GOOD AT

- Marketing real estate
- Representing Buyers, Sellers, Landlords and Tenants
- Deal making and problem solving
- 1031 exchanges
- Multifamily, industrial, retail, office, land, and all types of investment real estate

Like my wife says: “If you want a highly competent, no nonsense, real estate broker, call Ron Ross. You'll be doing yourself a favor.” — Mrs. Ross
