Summary

Dale's expertise in construction comes from his 40+ years in the field. He takes time with clients to know and understand their needs for a space and works hard to make sure the project is completed on time and budget. He collaborates with clients to be sure their primary business needs are met through the construction services provided. His expertise in the construction field and in managing projects assists him in performing with excellence for each project no matter the size.

Background & Experience

Dale grew up in a family where construction was a large focus and he brings a lifetime of experience with him. Since starting at Compass Commercial Construction Services, Dale works with each project start to finish on bids, estimates, schedules, budgets and finish, ensuring the client is satisfied.

Interests

In addition to his expertise in construction, Dale loves to cook and has experience as a chef, including working in the kitchens of famed cajun chef Paul Prudhomme in New Orleans. He often brings in delicious meals for the Compass Commercial staff. When at home, Dale enjoys spending time with his dog and working in his garden.
