SUMMARY

Timmy moved from Spokane, Washington, to Bend to be closer to family and to continue his career in property management. He works alongside the property management and maintenance teams preparing lease abstracts, conducting financial analysis and maintaining client files. With a passion for real estate, Timmy obtained his Washington Broker License before graduating from Gonzaga University along with his Oregon Broker License after moving to Bend, Oregon.

BACKGROUND & EXPERIENCE

Originally from Montana, Timmy has experience in owning and managing rental properties in Montana and Washington. He worked with Synergy Properties assisting agents with various maintenance and accounting duties. Hailing from a family of entrepreneurs, Timmy spent most of his summers working at the family plumbing and heating business, gaining an understanding of what it takes to own and manage a company.
