PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Matt Sichel boasts a proven track record of success, accumulating over two decades of experience in the commercial real estate industry. With a primary focus on the retail and office sectors, he provides expert guidance on commercial real estate transactions and offers valuable insights to facilitate the sale and lease process.

In his most recent role as Senior Director at NAI Elliott in Portland, OR, Matt maintained the prestigious position as the top producing broker throughout the years, and he earned recognition as the CoStar Retail Leasing Power Broker of the Year on multiple occasions. During his tenure at NAI Elliot, he negotiated over 1,400 commercial transactions. Prior to joining NAI Elliott, Matt held pivotal asset and property management positions at Princeton Property Management, Sherron & Associates, Inc., and Robert Randall Company. In these positions, he effectively managed a diverse portfolio of commercial properties and oversaw large multifamily properties comprised of thousands of units.

He utilizes his Bachelor of Science in Business Finance from Southern Oregon University in Ashland, OR, to provide detailed financial analysis and guidance in business process improvement. His extensive experience and educational background positions Matt as a formidable force in the commercial real estate industry.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT & INTERESTS

Matt actively engages in community initiatives and supports various charitable foundations across Oregon. During his college years, he served as the captain of the ski team, leading to their success as NW Slalom Champions. Beyond his community involvement, he is an outdoor enthusiast, frequently enjoying recreational opportunities Central Oregon offers, such as skiing, biking or fly fishing.
